President's Message

Volunteers don't get paid, not because they're worthless, but because they're priceless. – Sherry Anderson

Big shout out to our AAUW branch's new crop of volunteers:

- Janis Wood and Michelle Balis for diligently updating the by-laws.
- Shirley Selz, Janet Blanke, and Dottie Ewing for accepting officer positions.
- Joanna Huckabee for taking on the yearbook for another year.
- Vickie Natale for creating our branch website (and it is amazing.)
- Ann Hamilton for publishing the monthly newsletter.
- Jane Siegal for being our public relations specialist.

Thank you ladies, for volunteering.

Jeanne Ferrero gets special thanks for being possibly the hardest working volunteer —
Publishing monthly works of art, our newsletters.

I look forward to our May 5 meeting and hope for a great turnout to welcome incoming board members. – Carla

Neyland Library

CHANGE IN DATE

from Agnes Hamilton

The Wine and Cheese group will meet May 6th at Josefina Villarreal's home from 5-7 pm. This change of date is due to a conflict in schedules. Please RSVP to Josefina or Michelle.

The Wine and Cheese Group gathered for a very special party in April at the home of Nancy Horsley. The hostesses were Vera Wendl, Jane Siegel and Nancy Horsley. The wines and food pairings, as well as the decor, celebrated Texas. Yellow rose petals sprinkled on the blue checked tablecloths symbolized the "Yellow Rose of Texas." Delicious wines and food!

Kristin Conlan and Agnes Hamilton shared information about AAUW with attendees at the "Equal Pay Day for Women Event" at FUMC on April 10.

Catherine Cox and Janet Blanke represented AAUW Corpus Christi at the state convention in Houston in April.

Thank You

At the April Branch meeting at the YWCA, CCPD Commander Kelly Isaacks took listeners into her career of police work. Then Commander Isaacks willingly answered questions from an inquisitive audience.
